

"Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves."

(Matthew 7:15)

HIJACKING MINDS

IDOLATRY

Most people today don't know who their real enemies are. Neither do they know who their real friends are. Their reality is based on faulty perceptions .

They are victims of spiritual blindness which can leave them without their God-given sense of warning and danger. This condition is the result of idolatry.

Idolatry can make us dullwitted – prone to bad judgment. Idolaters want to be accepted among other idolaters. They choose popularity instead of virtue. The truth is, popularity (general acceptance) is usually antithetical to virtue. Typically they are mutually exclusive.

Idolatry is not just the worship of stone images. Better defined, it is worship of wrong or inappropriate things – like wealth, power, status, or comfort. Idolatry turns off parts of the brain and leaves us mentally deficient.

Conversely, worshipping right things can turn on our minds and open our eyes to recognize real friends and real enemies. Discernment and insight (given by Christ) equips us to see this. Without Christ's guidance our minds don't work correctly. But know this: righteousness and virtue do not beget popularity. So if popularity is your goal, you won't have much use for this message.

The men I admire most have always been unpopular. The prophets and apostles were hated by nearly everyone, and most of them were martyred.

John the Baptist was righteous, and unaccepted by the Judeans. But Jesus knew him.

Jesus was absolutely righteous, but He offended most of the people.

These all taught truth and freedom, and pleased God, but the people didn't like them. That's because the people's brains were psychologically deranged due to idolatry. They were conditioned to think wrongly. They perceived freedom as a burden - a disadvantage - and they perceived idolatry as an advantage. It gave them friends in high places and put them in good stead with the Beast System.

Idolaters look for the easy answers – popular answers, rather than correct answers. Their rulers count on this. Idolaters prefer to avoid critical inquiry in favor of "keeping the peace" – not questioning that which is politically correct or acceptable. Instead of reasoning what is right, they seek what appears to be popular. The ambition of idolaters is to be accepted by the "hoi poloi" (GK - the masses).

People are prone to believe, in order of preference, that which they hear first, secondly that which they hear most often, and lastly the truth. This is a fact, and the politicians who manage the minds of the masses know this. They count on it. This simple principle guides them as they rule.

GOVERNMENT -vs- MAN

What I just explained is the science behind government as we know it. But God gave man good principles and laws. God's laws instruct us in truth and righteousness. But man typically wants his own laws. So men abandon God's laws and make their own laws.

Man's system (the Beast System) controls people by deception and fear - not by physical force. It rules by mental perceptions - by capturing our thoughts.

There are two kinds of captivity. One kind is by force or threat of force. The other is captivity by a more dangerous and common type - camouflaged and unseen. It is captivity via the mind - by manipulating our perceptions. It is warfare waged by THOUGHT AND PERCEPTION. It is slavery sold to us by con men - i.e., politicians, doctors, and church leaders. This kind of bondage is by perception, and the slaves themselves become volunteer salesmen for it. Mental captivity is stronger than captivity by chains or force.

"Mental slavery is the worst form of Slavery. It gives you the illusion of freedom, makes you trust, love and defend your oppressor while making an enemy of those who are trying to free you or open your eyes!" -anon

"None are more hopelessly enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free." -Johann Goethe

MENTAL MANIPULATION

If people believe that physical warfare is all they have to worry about, they will not even notice the psychological warfare being waged against them. If they fear foreign wars, they will not even notice the psyop warfare waged against them by their own government.

Our lives are shaped by warfare waged from air-conditioned government think tanks, not by conventional weapons. Here's how it works. The stories we are told become the stories we tell. The more we hear and repeat them the more we believe them. Stories can be deadly weapons. Stories (lies) become perceptions, and perceptions become reality. Repeat a lie often enough and it is perceived as truth. When a culture relies on lies, it can't last long.

Stories can create fear. Fear switches off the parts of our brain we use to solve problems. Without the ability to solve problems we rely on "experts" to solve them. When the experts turn out to be con men we are in trouble. Trusting in experts who are con men is idolatry. That is exactly how the world got trapped in the COVID plandemic.

Here is the link to an Internet documentary that explains how the false COVID narrative was used as a psyop by the government and news agencies to disable people's brains and trap them in a state of helplessness. To see this documentary go to: <https://cetv.one/programs/plandemic-indoctrination>.

Perception can be created and manipulated and like a Hollywood movie. Political con men create false perceptions to control us and turn us into believers of nonsense. People are conquered in a war they don't even know they are in.

It has happened before - many times. Let's consider some examples of how perceptions were used to fight war.

WARS AND PSYOPS

ENGLAND: We learned history in school - or did we?. To this day, the schools teach children that the American colonies fought for freedom from England and King George. The result was the "Revolutionary War." We were told that England was bad, and America was good. So that becomes the perception. That perception become our reality.

We were told that England wanted to impose tyranny and oppression, and that the ensuing military battles were fought over this issue. Red Coats vs Americans. Americans wanted freedom, and the Red Coats wanted tyranny.

Pretty straight forward. The Colonies and General Washington only wanted to be free. It was a righteous war, and America won. Hurray!

The perception became reality - in our history books.

So, was it really that simple and clear cut? What was the war really about? Isn't it strange that America and England, a few years later, were the best of friends?

What is wrong with that picture?

INDIAN WARS: We are told that American Indians were crazed savages who hated Europeans who only wanted to settle here and build homes and raise families. So settlers had to fight for their lives. This led to the Indian wars with many native tribes across America. But what were they really fighting about? Was it merely a clash of cultures?

MEXICO: The Mexican-American War was waged between the United States and Mexico from 1846 to 1848. We are told that Mexico attacked the settlers in the south, and the Alamo. It resulted in Mexico losing a large land mass including Texas, and America gaining it. What was that war fought for?

SPAIN: We are told that in the late 1800s Cuba and the Philippines (Spanish colonies) were being oppressed by Spanish imperialism. So America sent a battleship (the USS Maine) to Havana Harbor to try to mitigate Spain's oppression of Cuba. The Maine was sunk (supposedly by Spain) and this started the war. America was just trying to help the oppressed Cubans and Philippines. That's the story we were told.

CIVIL WAR: We are told the Civil War was fought over the issue of slavery. The South wanted slaves, and the North wanted to free the slaves. Almost a million lives were lost as result of this war. Was it just a disagreement about slavery?

WORLD WARS: We are told that in 1914 - 1945 Germans ("Huns"), Italians (Wops), and Japanese (Japs) were responsible for two World Wars. They were portrayed to America as evil and wicked nations. Hitler is still considered the most evil man of the 20th century. The death toll for both wars was over 100,000,000 people. America saved the world from the Nazis, the Japs, and the Wops. Really?

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF WARS?

Those "terrible, dangerous" enemy nations become friends and political allies soon after the wars are over. Isn't it odd that (going down the line) England, Mexico, Spain, the South, Germany, Italy, Japan (and numerous other I didn't name) are now allies and somehow best of friends?

How does that work? Did America cause them to repent and have a conversion? How did all those horrible people suddenly become good people and friends of the US?

This is something to contemplate. It is, at the very least, odd - don't you think?

Here's the thing. The people didn't change. They want to live. They don't want to be invaded. So what did change? Well, our perception of them changed. Why? Because our propaganda ministers told us we don't hate them now.

The truth is, the people of those nations were never our enemies. The governments (theirs and ours) simply told us we were enemies - and we believed it. It was perception that became reality (in our minds). We were sold lies.

Wars always have at least two sides with at least two declared causes. Wars are NEVER for reasons told to the people. In fact, wars are NEVER waged by the people.

People don't fight wars of their own volition. People fight wars because they are sold war by their governments.

Wars are always invented by political leaders. But the leaders don't do the fighting. Wars are always fought by civilians (we the people) - the ones who bleed and die for the cause. Wars are created and declared by the governments ("leaders") of nations - never by the people. Thus, we the people bleed and die while the "leaders" - at least those on the winning side - gain wealth, power, and glory. Often on both sides. Wars are profitable for political leaders, bankers, and merchants that manufacture and sell war equipment. Military generals benefit too. Often they became national leaders - like George Washington, Ulysses Grant, Andrew Jackson, and Dwight Eisenhower. Nowadays celebrities and billionaires seem to be taking center stage in US politics. They have blood on their hands, and it isn't their own.

HISTORY

U.S. history, from the founding of the government, is replete with political scheming to invade, conquer, and use the people of America - and other nations too. Most, if not all, of the loss of freedom and loss of God's blessings for we the people has been caused by the government - the politicians who lead this undeclared war on we the people - to rob us of our freedom, and make us think they are doing us a favor. And sadly, the captives actually support and love their criminal slavemasters. That is idolatry.

And this should be no surprise to us, for the Word of God tells us this time and time again. Adam, in Genesis, opted out of God's society in favor of a society run by politicians and bankers. Later, under Moses' leading, the Children of Israel were given a nation which they maintained for a while. But then they opted to divorce God and establish a different system - one like the other nations had. God told Samuel (1 Samuel 8) that government by man would ruin their nation. And Samuel repeated the warning to the elders of Israel. But they chose man-made government anyway. So they got it. And it led them into captivity and slavery.

The Beast System thrives on war. But if the international bankers and the political and military leaders (the ones who actually want war) would do their own fighting instead of sending young men to bleed and die for them, the wars wouldn't last long - probably wouldn't happen at all.

Wars are fomented for the sake of criminal politicians who want to control lands that belong to other people. The government leaders want to enlarge their sphere of control in the world. Political and military leaders use wars as pretexts to create a dialectic scenario - to convince the people in general to give them more power and control.

Wars are lies and clever exploitations - stories (perceptions) invented by politicians and implanted into people's minds. Political and military leaders sell lies - false perceptions. When people believe the lies they become reality.

Wars start first as psyops waged by lying criminals (politicians). The greatest of all wars, always undeclared and hidden, is the continual war waged by governments against private citizens. It is a psychological war - a war against that is fought in the minds of the people. The "war in heaven."

Government-invented pandemics are psychological wars on the people. They are invented by politicians and international bankers - to create fear and submission in our minds. Government doesn't protect us. It exploits and uses us. Wars are deceptions. It is said that truth is the first casualty of war. The politicians are NEVER concerned for our safety. Sorry to burst your bubble. If you haven't thought of this before, please consider what I'm saying. Governments, militaries, and international bankers are war departments for conquering the masses to serve billionaire elites. They sell perceptions. Lies. To brainwash the people and to enrich themselves and their crony merchants of the earth.

Politicians are the gatekeepers - the enablers. And billionaire merchants are the beneficiaries - the lords of the grand scheme. Government (politics) is a scam. It is the biggest and most successful scam in history. It not only conquers the people, it also replaces God Himself.

Government is idolatry - it facilitates mind control. Politicians are not leaders - they are con men. They are not guardians of the public - they are salesmen. Usurers. And perceptions are their merchandise. Perceptions of war and enemies (bogeymen), claims of liberty (lies), perceptions of danger (war and disease), and perceptions of protection. Government is a protection racket.

Western democracies are usually comprised of two factions - two sides presented to the public which is supposed to pick one side or the other. You can pick either side you want, but be aware that both sides are your enemies. Both sides are at war against you. Man's government is covert warfare against the people and against Christ.

A hundred years of Rothschild and Rockefeller banking and medicine propaganda has entrained gullible populations to worship them as masters and "experts." The "experts" (politicians and doctors) are part of the control artifice. We are trained to believe that we, the people, are incapable of understanding the complexities of health and politics. We are told that we have no other source for help and truth. Therefore we must leave all that stuff to the "experts." And their word is law. We are ruled by men, and God is ignored and pushed out of the picture.

THE FOOL HAS SAID ...

1. The fool has said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominations, none is doing good.
2. Yahweh looked down from the heavens upon the sons of Adam, to see if any are understanding, and seeking God.
3. They are all turned aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none doing good; no, not one.

Psalm 14:1-3

The thing that keeps bothering me about America's current COVID scare is that if mankind was at war with viruses and germs, and if they were as deadly as we are being told, then mankind would have died out long ago. Mankind could have never survived even one generation. The germs would have killed us off.

What do you think? How did people manage to survive and thrive before modern medicine came with pills and vaccines to “protect us” against germs? Think about it!

How did Abraham live to the age of 175 without medical protection from germs or viruses? People didn’t even know about viruses or vaccines. How did the Children of Israel survive and thrive during the time of the Judges - without a medical establishment and government to “keep them safe”?

I tell you, we’ve been conned. Sold lies. Programmed with perceptions by psychological hitmen (politicians).

We’ve been conquered but not by tanks and bombs.

We’ve been conquered by storytellers and con men.

Americans worship government. This is “idolatry.”

WORST WAR MONGERS

Since the United States were founded in 1776, they have been at war over 90% of the time. There were very few calendar years in which the U.S. was not waging any wars. And millions of Americans have died fighting those wars. The politicians are rarely if ever in danger. Most of them benefit and prosper from war.

U.S. Military spending dwarfs all military spending of the rest of the world combined. No wonder people of the world believe America is the number one threat to peace.

In 2014 The Nation Newsletter published that the US was conducting war operations (including secret ones) in 134 countries. God only knows how many the White House, Pentagon, and CIA are conducting today. With 1000 or more military bases in 80 or more countries the US is the world’s biggest and worst war monger. Conflict and war is what governments are about. And yet, most Americans still think that the US Military exists to protect us.

The truth is, through its military and economic conflicts the US Government is constantly expanding and enlarging its footprint throughout the world. Most wars and conflicts are strategic US operations to that end.

PERCEPTION AND REALITY

We live in a world shaped by perceptions – by our minds. Man’s reality, what he sees and believes, is the product of his perceptions. Different men perceive reality differently. That’s why men must not rely solely on their own judgment to determine good and evil. We need God’s guidance - his laws and principles - to guide our eyes and ears to accurately discern reality.

A con man (a serpent) sold Adam and Eve a deception – a wrong perception of reality. Their understanding of reality became invalid, and their world was twisted out of shape. They were convinced that they could become as god.

In 1 Samuel 8 the Children of Israel adopted a wrong perception of reality. They rejected God’s system and made some very bad choices that changed their world. Their minds were evil, and their reality (perceptions) became toxic. They opted for the Beast System.

In Matthew 4 a devil (a man - probably a politician or a preacher) attempted to sell false perceptions to Jesus – to change his view of reality and truth. But Jesus didn’t buy the phoney perceptions – phoney reality. Jesus chose to worship his Father instead of a Beast System. What Jesus meant was that He refused to allow the con man to restructure reality by selling false perceptions.

15. Love not the world, neither the things in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
16. For all that is in the world (the Beast System), the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the arrogance of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world (the Beast System).
17. And the world is passed away, and the lust thereof: but the one doing the will of God abides into the age.

1 John 2

The Beast System and its salesmen peddle illusions that shape our perceptions. Perceptions shape and change how we comprehended reality. Whoever controls our perceptions controls our reality.

MIND GAMES

The serpent (con man) said to the woman, in essence, “Why did God tell you what to do? What was his motive?” The serpent planted an idea into Adam’s and Eve’s mind. That idea changed their world (reality). When they adopted that perception their world – their reality – changed.

That’s what con men (devils) can do. That’s what so-called “experts” like Bill Gates, Tony Fauci, Donald Trump, governors, and mayors can do. They claim superior insight. They plant perceptions into minds. They change reality. This is how they control idolators (a state worshipers).

That’s how COVID-19 coronavirus sickness came into existence. Not by fact, but by perceptions sold by con men to change reality in the minds of people.

“As a man thinks in his heart, so is he.” Proverbs 14:7.

THERE IS NO PANDEMIC!

Comorbidities (from the CDC website):

“Conditions and contributing causes mentioned in conjunction with deaths involving coronavirus disease in 2019. In 6% of the deaths, COVID-19 was the only cause. All others (94%) had additional deadly diseases (“comorbidities”). IN ADDITION to COVID-19, on average, there were 2.6 additional conditions or causes per death.”

Hospitals are being paid (bribed) by organizations like The Bill And Melinda Gates Foundation to falsify death certificates by listing COVID as a cause of death. Politicians and the news media are paid off too. Perception becomes reality. That’s how it is done.
